ORDER

JED S. RAKOFF, U.S.D.J.

Defendant Hugh Brian Haney has filed a motion for early termination of supervised release. See Dkt. 39. The Government and the Probation Department do not oppose this request. Having considered the relevant factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), Court finds that early termination of defendant's supervised release is in the interests of justice substantially for the reasons set forth in defendant's unopposed motion. See 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1). Accordingly, the Court grant's the motion for defendant for early termination of his supervised release. Defendant's remaining term of supervised release is hereby terminated.
